Last Saturday's South Runners' event was a trail run starting from near Twilight Beach, with distances ranging from 2km to 8.9km. Conditions were perfect for the run through the bush.

It was great to see a good number of walkers at this weekend, with 12 entrants in the 2km walk. Chloe Parker was the first to finish, no doubt pushed along by some competition with Donna Maccan who finished just two seconds back. Maureen Dickason and Pam Williams crossed the line together for third place.

Jack Sharpe was the first runner back in the 2km race, while Zoe Maccan took out second place. There was only two seconds separating the third and fourth place-getters, with Ben Hobson holding off Tyler Bradford.

In the 5.2km run Caitlin Hoey looked comfortable in taking out first place ahead of Mark Goodhand in second. Leanne Cassam was the only taker for the longer walk distance, and hence the winner!

There were eleven competitors in the longest run distance of 8.9km. Shannan Dixon and Brian Sylva ran together for much of the way, with Shannan finishing just ahead. Richard Brown was third, keeping his running rival Andy Maccan in fourth place.

Next week's event is another trail run, this time at the 10 Mile Lagoon Wind Farm, with distances of around 2km, 5km and 10km. South East Runners club is supporting Prader-Willi awareness month during May, with competitors asked to wear something orange to show their support. The start time is 4pm on Saturday, and as the venue is a little out of town please allow sufficient time for the drive out.
